Description of New Course:

Certiorari Review in the United States Supreme Court

1 Credit hour ONLY

This course will examine the United States Supreme Court’s certiorari review of state and federal court decisions. Topics will include history and origins, constitutional and statutory underpinnings, Supreme Court rules and operating procedures, and factors motivating grant of the writ. Students will review certiorari petitions granted during the prior Term and will select a recently decided federal or state court decision and draft a petition for certiorari for that case. Course is graded based on the certiorari petition. Prof. Heidi Vollet is a 2000 graduate of the School of Law. She is presently an Assistant Missouri Attorney General and is a former law clerk to the Hon. William Rehnquist, Chief Justice of the United States.

Voir Dire

1 Credit hour ONLY Limited to 16 students

This course examines jury selection law and strategy. Students will actually select a jury. Grade is based on student’s participation in the voir dire selection process, a paper, and a one hour exam. Judge Harold Lowenstein is a 1965 graduate of the School of Law. He serves as a judge on the Missouri Court of Appeals, Western District.
